

DECEMBER 2009

The Grill at The Setai

2001 Collins Avenue; South Beach; 305.520.6000

Score an exclusive tasting for two with the exec chef at the just-reopened Grill, and sample slow cooked comfort dishes like piquillo peppers stuffed with fresh crab meat & crème fraiche, or an oxtail that's been de-boned, stuffed, and rolled into a bundle then braised in red wine for 24 hours -- all said, a sure-fire way to get you stuffed, de-boned, and rolled into a bundle, too.

Enter to get yourself a tasting by clicking here, then check out the newly reno'd Grill at Setai.com

Amongst Friends

Snag gratis neckwear from New York's AF, like the blue/black/yellow silk Ace Plaid or the custom woven silk skinny Alumni in a black/yellow combo whose pseudo-Princetonian flash will overshadow a resume that says Miami Dade Community.

Click here to snag a gratis tie, then head to AmongstFriendsNYC.com to scope their whole collection

Kyoku

Get hooked up with a $100 giftbox for freezie before these man-products hit US shores this spring: a cleanser, lip protector, and razor burn repairing face lotion that hail from a village in Japan notorious for the "health, vitality, and impeccable skin" of its elderly population, so go ahead: wax on.

Snag gratis man products here, then scope more man product goodness at KyokuForMen.com